

THE WENDLING GROUP

The Wendling Group is dedicated to helping business owners, entrepreneurs, financial advisors and corporate employees achieve a higher level of success by taking control over their professional and personal life. We provide a stable balance between business consulting and personal coaching through self-examination, shared business knowledge and personal perseverance.

If you are ready to make positive changes in your professional career and personal life, we will help you to:

Personal:

- Create a clear vision for your future
- Set and achieve higher quality goals
- Make healthy decisions for your life
- Turn procrastination into action
- Eliminate rather than tolerate the negatives in your life
- Achieve a balanced and joyful life!

Professional:

- Create a business plan that leads to better success
- Build a cost-effective, customized marketing program
- Increase business skills and get organized
- Accelerate development in business processes, skills, knowledge, and relationships
- Maximize time management to reduce work hours
- Build successful relationships with other business leaders
- Create an inspiring working environment for employees and co-workers
- Reduce stress and feel rejuvenated
- Make work fun again!

The Wendling Group offers a comprehensive approach to helping you break through barriers to achieve personal and professional greatness and create a well-balanced life. We believe it is critical to align your personal vision, business strategy, processes and relationships to create personal and professional harmony. Our coaches create a personalized coaching program tailored to your specific needs.

Contact The Wendling Group at 916-965-4933 or e-mail wendling@wendling.com to schedule a free coaching session. Learn how The Wendling Group can help you discover your possibilities, build the business of your dreams and live your best life!